The Long Haul Pioneers

Coghill, Ashley

In 1964 two friends gave up promising medical careers to embark upon a journey which few hardened truckers would have considered. They were solely responsible for creating the first long haul overland route, across Europe and deep into the Middle East to Kabul. The 'Middle East Run' was to become a phenomenon in the road haulage industry, an image which it still holds today. This book is about the company founded by one of those men, from its fledgling days as Asian Transport to the thriving Astran Cargo Services Ltd that it is today.
